PERVERTED SUFI

There is an old Persian saying "Dove with Dove Falcon with Falcon" However in these times with so many birds migrating and so many extinct species it can happen that a dove falls for a falcon and vice versa. This collection of themes and improvisations documents the dove's journey into heartbreak ancient wisdom, rich culture, cultural misunderstandings and beauty. In this paring

THE DOVE: HEARTBROKEN

THE FALCON: A SELFISH NATURE

However this Dove is wise and does not take this one flock of Falcon's deplorable way of thinking as representative of all falcons for this dove knows even though a bird fly's in a flock each bird soars as an individual. Our Dove continues its quest into falcon territory with the naive idealistic hope that Falcon and Dove will live together in harmony...someday.
